Helping Families and Seniors

ABORIGINAL HOUSING

There are more than 640 units of designated Aboriginal housing in the region.

WOMEN'S TRANSITION HOUSING

There are over 170 provincially funded spaces available in the region for women (with or without dependent children) who are at risk of violence.

EMERGENCY SHELTERS AND HOMELESS OUTREACH

Last year, over $20 million was spent on nearly 1,800 housing units to support the homeless and those at risk of homelessness, including: more than 220 permanent year-round emergency shelter spaces, nearly 1,100 subsidized units; and more than 470 homeless rent supplements.

HOMELESS SUPPORTIVE HOUSING

The B.C. government has a partnership with the City of Kelowna to build new supportive units. All three developments – Tutt Street Place, Willowbridge and New Gate Apartments – are open.

SUPPORT FOR SENIORS AND PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

» Independent Seniors Housing provides subsidized apartments for those who are able to live independently with an affordable option for staying in their communities. There are more than 3,000 affordable homes for independent seniors in the region.

» Supportive and Assisted Living gives seniors the help they need to continue living in their communities near family and friends. More than 2,000 seniors live in supportive and assisted living units throughout the region.

» Shelter Aid for Elderly Renters (SAFER) close to 3,600 seniors' households receive rent supplements benefits. The program was enhanced in 2014 to better meet the needs of low-income seniors. With the new enhanced benefit the average monthly payment is expected to increase from approximately $150 to $180.

» Home Adaptations for Independence offers financial assistance for home adaptations to help eligible low-income seniors and people with disabilities improve accessibility and safety in their home.
