Helping Families and Seniors

ABORIGINAL HOUSING

There are more than 1,050 units of designated Aboriginal housing in the region.

WOMEN'S TRANSITION HOUSING

There are nearly 150 provincially funded spaces available for women (with or without dependent children) who are at risk of violence.

EMERGENCY SHELTERS AND HOMELESS OUTREACH

Last year, more than $24 million was spent on nearly 1,900 housing units in the region to support the homeless and those at risk of homelessness, including: nearly 250 permanent year-round, emergency shelter spaces; more than 900 subsidized units; and over 740 homeless rent supplements.

HOMELESS SUPPORTIVE HOUSING

The B.C. government has partnerships with three local governments (Victoria, Campbell River, Nanaimo) to build new supportive units for those who are homeless or at risk of homelessness in the region.

SUPPORT FOR SENIORS AND PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

» Independent Seniors Housing provides subsidized apartments for those who are able to live independently with an affordable option for staying in their communities. There are more than 3,000 affordable homes for independent seniors in the region.

» Supportive and Assisted Housing gives seniors the help they need to continue living in their communities near family and friends. More than 2,100 seniors live in supportive and assisted living units throughout the region.

» Shelter Aid for Elderly Renters (SAFER) over 3,700 seniors households receive rent supplements benefits. The program was enhanced in 2014 to better meet the needs of low-income seniors. With the new enhanced benefit the average monthly payment is expected to increase from approximately $150 to $180.

» Home Adaptations for Independence offers financial assistance for home adaptations to help eligible low-income seniors and people with disabilities improve accessibility and safety in their home.
